

LOGISTICS DISPATCH MANAGER

Ready to work in a fast-paced environment with a winning team?

We take great pride in the exceptional level of service we provide to our customers and we constantly strive to maintain our commitment of excellence. Currently we have an opening for a Logistics Dispatch Manager in our San Diego, CA office. We place a high value on individuals who have the ability to think for themselves and make decisions on their own. This is a rare opportunity for those who seek a leadership role and the opportunity to grow with the business.

The responsibilities of this position include, but are not limited to:

- Working with LTL, truckload, and international carriers, and owner operators
- Managing daily dispatch activity ensuring timely load entry, and delivery follow-up
- Fostering good working relationships with all coworkers, customers, and vendors
- Generating business leads from current customer base

Who we're looking for:

The successful candidate will have the following background and ability:

- A proven record of success in all aspects of operational traffic management
- Great organizational skills with special emphasis on follow through
- Ability to proactively anticipate problems and communicate effectively
- Strong data and analytical skills and proficiency with Microsoft Office
- Bachelor's degree in Logistics or related job experience
- Experience with LTL, truckload, intermodal, and international
- Bilingual in Spanish and English a strong plus.

What we offer:

- A progressive work environment which encourages creativity and critical thinking
- A team of professional and enthusiastic employees dedicated to customer service
- Participation in sales incentive and cost improvement bonus programs
- Competitive salary plus benefits program (Medical insurance, and 401(k) plan)