

A DIRECT ROUTE TO IMPROVED EFFICIENCY

You may have the greatest product in the world, but if you can't deliver it on time and cost-effectively to your markets, you're in serious trouble. In other words, logistics can make or break your business.

Large corporations have entire, well-funded logistics departments at their disposal. However, if you are a small or mid-market company, your supply chain may not receive the same level of attention it deserves.

Fortunately, there's a firm that specializes in the logistical challenges of companies with $100K-$10M in annual transportation expenses: PGL.

PGL: Logistics specialists for small and mid-market companies

PGL has built a reputation for efficient, highly professional logistics services. PGL creates real value for its clients by maximizing efficiency and minimizing costs, allowing you to focus on your core business.

PGL: Efficiency through state-of-the-art technology

PGL strives to ensure efficient freight solutions for your specific needs. An example is PGL's Transportation Management System (TMS) that helps significantly reduce freight costs for smaller shippers, while improving efficiency and transparency for mid-market shippers.

PGL's clients enjoy unlimited usage of this web-based solution, so you don't have to purchase additional software. Ordering, quotes, carrier selection, shipment tracking, shipment history, and exportable data; they are all at your fingertips, thanks to PGL.

PGL's specific areas of expertise include

- Logistics Management
- Carrier Selection
- Event Management
- Freight Management
- Shipment Planning
- Shipment Optimization / Asset Utilization
- Customized Management Reports
- Demand Planning Consultation

Over the years, some respected companies have called on the PGL management team for logistical support, including:

- Costco
- Random House
- Sam's Club
- Harper & Row
- BJ's
- Borders
- Publisher's Group West
- Walden Books
- Rodale Press
- Foremost Industries

The PGL mission is to...

Always exceed expectations, by designing and implementing logistics strategies that provide our customers with the most cost-effective transportation solutions. PGL promises to:

- Employ the best logistics personnel in the industry
- Utilize leading-edge logistics software
- Focus on mid-market companies with aggressive growth strategies
- Design logistics solutions through a needs-based approach

Freeing you to focus on your business

With PGL on your team, your access to domestic and international carriers has never been easier. Through expert analysis, PGL can help refine your transportation strategy and tactics and then match the best transportation solution to your specific needs. While you focus on other key aspects of your business, PGL will obtain the most cost-efficient shipping services meeting your delivery needs and saving you money.

Going the extra mile

Transportation never sleeps and neither does PGL. With customer service available 24/7, answers to all your logistics questions are always just a phone call or email away. In addition to a deep understanding of global logistics, every member of the PGL staff shares something more: a commitment to go beyond the expected and always strive for exceptional results for our customers.
